In addition, candidates selected for Crane Operator/Shunter posts will be required to undergo specific training in crane operation and shunting (loco-driver) for one year in the Company during the period as Temporary Employee (Artisan).

Reservations :

Out of the 450 vacancies stated above, 121 are reserved for candidates from OBC (Non Creamy Layer), 85 are reserved for SC and 4 for ST candidates and 16 posts are reserved for Physically Challenged candidates inclusive of backlog vacancies and as per rules for Ex-Servicemen. The number of vacancies being tentative, the reservation vacancies given are only indicative and subject to marginal revision/adjustment based on re-assessment of vacancies at the time of actual selection, taking into consideration the category wise excess/shortage.

Vacancies for OBC category are meant only for those coming under the 'non-creamy layer'. 'Non Creamy Layer' under OBC means 'the gross annual income of parents of the candidate should not be more than 2.5 lakhs in the last three consecutive years.' The OBC candidates who do not belong to Non Creamy Layer should indicate their category as General only.

Age Limits and Relaxations:

The upper age limit is 27 years as on 01/04/2008. A relaxation of 3 years for candidates from Other Backward Classes (Non Creamy Layer), 5 years for SC & ST candidates, is admissible in the upper age limit.

In physically challenged category, the General candidates will be allowed a total of 10 years of age relaxation, SC/ST candidates a total of 15 years and OBC (Non Creamy Layer) candidates a total of 13 years as per rules.

Age relaxation for Ex-Servicemen will be as per Government Rules.

A relaxation of 5 years in upper age limit is also admissible to candidates who were ordinarily domiciled in the State of Jammu & Kashmir during the period from 01/01/1980 to 31/12/1989.

Upper age limit is further relaxable upto 84 months to candidates possessing equivalent and relevant experience of working directly in a Public Sector or Private Sector organization engaged in manufacture of Boiler components of not less than 100MW unit capacity. The relaxation in age will be extended according to the number of completed months of experience upto a maximum of 84 months. Such candidates will have to compete with other eligible candidates in Written Test / Interview etc. For claiming age relaxation, experience certificate from the employer/organisation is to be produced, with details of period of working, nature of products, manufactured etc. The decision of BHEL regarding authenticity / genuineness of experience certificates and relevance of experience will be final and binding.

Emoluments and other benefits:

The selected candidates will initially be taken as Temporary Employees for a period of one year. During this period they will be paid daily wages as per notification of the State Government for the first six months and consolidated wages for the next six months. On successful completion of this period, they will be absorbed in the regular establishment as ARTISAN Gr IV at the minimum of the scale of pay of Rs.4800-130-5190-EB-5255-150-7805/- (Pay scale is under revision) with applicable allowances such as Dearness Allowance, House Rent Allowance etc. as applicable and other benefits like Uniforms, reimbursement of conveyance expenditure, LTC/LTA, Leave, Contributory Provident Fund (PF), Gratuity, Group Insurance, Group Accident Insurance etc. as per rules.

The absorption in the regular establishment will be based on review of their performance/ behaviour / suitability to remain in the services of the Organisation as assessed by the Committee constituted for this purpose.

Selection Process

- The selection process will consist of an Objective type Written Test in English/Tamil to be held at Tiruchirappalli. The Question Booklet will also be available in Hindi for those candidates who request for it. Candidates will have to appear for the Written Test at their own expense. Candidates successful in the Written Test will be required to appear for personal interview.
- Eligible candidates will be invited for objective type Written Test at their own expense in the ratio of 1:20 to the number of vacancies in the Trade. For the purpose of application of the aforesaid criteria, initially all UR candidates in each trade along with such reserved category candidates of that trade who have not availed the marks/age relaxation prescribed for the respective category will be grouped together, and then arranged in the descending order of marks obtained in the National Apprenticeship Examination and only the required number starting from the top will be called for the Written Test in each trade. Reserved category candidates who are initially considered in the UR category and who do not make it to the Written Test shortlist, will be re-grouped with their respective categories for further consideration and candidates will be called for Written Test in the prescribed ratio of 1:20 to the number of vacancies in that category/trade. In case of a tie at cut off marks, all the candidates scoring cut off marks will be called for the Written Test.
- In case the number of Physically Challenged candidates short listed on the above basis is less than in the required proportion of 1:20 to the number of posts, then a relaxation of up to 5% point in the cut off percentage determined for each trade / category will be operated for them and Physically Challenged candidates invited for Written Test accordingly.
- All Ex-Servicemen candidates who possess required qualification of NTC and NAC in the relevant trade as certified by the Armed Forces, will be called for written test, if otherwise found eligible.
- After the Written Test, list of candidates will be arranged in the merit order of marks obtained in the Written Test, first for all the candidates who appeared under the UR category and short listed in the ratio of 1:3 to the number of UR vacancies for being called for Interview. From this list, reserved category candidates who took the Written Test under UR category and fail to make it to the Interview level will then be taken to their respective categories for consideration for being called for Interview in the ratio of 1:3. It means these candidates will then be considered as reserved category candidates. In case of a tie at cut off marks, all the candidates scoring cut off marks will be called for Interview.

- Later, at the time of final selection, the same method will be followed for all those reserved category candidates considered so far under UR category.
