MODE OF SELECTION:

The mode of selection of candidates shall be personal interview. However, if the number of eligible applications received is in excess of 1:6 to the no. of vacancies, Written Test shall be conducted only for the purposes of short listing candidates in the ratio of 1:3 for being called for interview, on the basis of their Written Test Marks. In the event of receiving good response of applications the maximum no. of candidates to be called for written test will be in the ratio of 1:20 to the no. of vacancies.

In case of written test the candidates will have to appear for written examination at their own expenses on the designated date, venue and time. Written examination will be objective and bilingual (Hindi & English) in nature. The candidates short-listed in written examination based on performance and requirement will have to appear for personal interview.

To arrive at the ratio of 1:6 first all the unreserved candidates will be grouped along with those reserved category candidates who have not taken any relaxation with respect to age /marks ( in both ITI & NAC ). These candidates will be arranged in descending order of the percentage of marks obtained in the NAC and starting from the top, only the required number of candidates will be called for written examination. In case of a tie at cut-off percentage of marks all the scoring the cut off marks will be called for the Written Exam.

Out of this list, Reserved category candidates who were grouped with Unreserved category but fail to make it to the written exam short list will then be taken to their respective original categories for consideration for being called for written exam in the ratio of 1: 6 to the number of reserved vacancies.

Physically Challenged candidates shall be invited for written exam by according 5%age point relaxation in the cut off %age determined for each category. ( For example if cut off %age is 75 then for Physically Challenged candidates cut off %age will be arrived by according relaxation of 5 percentage points i.e.  $75-5=70$ )

However, all Ex -Serviceman, who posses certificate relevant to respective advertised ITI trade issued by the Forces, will be called for written exam, if otherwise eligible.

After the written examination, the candidates will be short listed for interview in the ratio of 1: 3 to the number of vacancies in each category.

Those who are short listed and appear in the interview will be paid second sleeper class to and fro rail fare from the starting station or the mailing address whichever is near to the place of interview and back by the shortest route on production of proof of journey.

After the written exam, the candidates will be arranged in the descending order of the written exam marks in each category. First, candidates who appeared under the unreserved category will be short listed in the ratio of 1:6 to the number of unreserved vacancies for being called for interview. These candidates will be arranged in descending order of the marks obtained in the written examination and starting from the top, only the required number of candidates will be called for interview. In case of a tie at cut-off marks all the candidates scoring the cut off marks will be called for Interview from this list, Reserved Category candidates who were grouped with Unreserved category but fail to make it to the interview short list will then be taken to their original reserved category for consideration for being short listed for interview in the ratio of 1:6 to the number of reserved vacancies.

Later at the time of final selection, the same procedure will be followed for all those reserved category candidates considered so far under the unreserved category.

EMOLUMENTS AND OTHER BENEFITS: Selected candidates will be placed as DRAUGHTSMAN GRADE –IV at the minimum of the scale of pay of Rs. 4800-130-5190-EB-5255-150-7805 (due for revision w.e.f. 01.01.2007).
